Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: The rejection of claims 1-18 under 35 U.S.C. §102(b) is based on a presentation given by the Applicant. As such, the Applicant is in the best position to distinguish the material actually presented (in addition to information disclosed on the slides) from that which is claimed. The Applicant has stated that the presentation did not teach of suggest many of the recited features of the claimed invention. However, it is unclear to the Examiner as to whether this statement is made in regards to the entire presentation, including any oratory disclosure, or to only the documents of record. Accordingly, the rejection is maintained, but will be withdrawn if the Applicant makes an affirmative statement on the record regarding claimed limitations not disclosed by the Applicant in any component of the March 26, 1998, presentation. Secondly, Applicant has suggested that there is a grave distinction between an object and a formal specification [see p. 2, par. 2 of Response After Final] but has not made a clear statement on the record as to what that distinction is with regard to the context of the claims.
